

Youth WIOA Services

The WIA Youth Program provides assistance to in-school and out-of-school participants ages 16-21 who meet the appointed eligibility requirements. Eligible in-school participants must be academically juniors or seniors and are provide assistance to transition into post-secondary school or employment. Assistance is also provided to eligible participants who are out-of-school and do not exceed the age of 21.

A broad array of services including tutoring, study skills, leadership development, mentoring, guidance and counseling are provided. These services are delivered to the participant using six main activity levels that include academics, careers, life skills, self-empowerment, social/cultural and paid and unpaid work experience. The WIA Youth Program provides eligible customers the right combination of knowledge and tools to become successful, self-sufficient adults.
